

BMC gets birth report of SRK's surrogate baby, Shah Rukh Khan updates, Shah Rukh News

Mumbai:

The month-long wait for details of actor Shah Rukh Khan's third baby, born with the help of a surrogate m

The child was born at 34 weeks of pregnancy and weighed 1.5kg at birth, said BMC executive health of

The baby was reportedly taken from Masrani to Nanavati Hospital, Juhu, and finally to Breach Candy Ho

On Tuesday, Bamne told TOI, "We have received from Masrani Nursing Home a birth report, which has Masrani Hospital is located in Lalubhai Compound, S V Road, Andheri (W).

On the basis of this birth report the BMC has to issue a birth certificate to the parents.

BMC gets birth report of SRK's surrogate baby, Shah Rukh Khan updates, Shah Rukh News ,surrogate ba

Written by Neha

Wednesday, 03 July 2013 08:45 - Last Updated Friday, 05 July 2013 11:53

There are no official details about the surrogate mother, but some reports in the media had said that Ga

Civic officials said the birth report was received by K-West Ward officials in June-end and was immediat

While Indian guidelines for Assisted Reproductive Techniques allow the use of surrogate mothers, the P

The BMC had sent a team to Khan's residence on June 18 to determine the facts of the case, but the ac

When contacted, BMC additional municipal commissioner Manisha Mhaskar said, "Our officials will now

source:<http://zoomtv.indiatimes.com>